PCB Kids Announcements

January 27, 2019

Today in Sunday School.

This week as parents hear about the Beatitudes in worship, our PCB kids will be exploring that same text as well! Thanks to our teachers Lindsay Consdorf and Melanie Rausch.

Communion Next Week

Communion is an essential part of our community life together and gives us an opportunity to reflect on all who are part of the family of Christ.

Our children are invited to participate in communion with the whole congregation. So, on communion Sundays we will have an abbreviated Sunday School hour and the kids will rejoin their parents in worship for communion, around 10:45am. Sunday School during this hour will make use of our extensive library collection and encourage our PCB kids to check out a book!

...coming up in Sunday School

In the coming weeks both Sunday School classes will be learning about the Disciples and the Wedding at Cana

Faith at Home

Let the learning continue at home! Each week during the weekly email, there will be a section with some questions and suggestions for devotionals to do at home with your kids. This is a way for parents to help reinforce what the kids learn in Sunday School and a great way for everyone to learn together and activate faith during the week.
