Welcome and Life of the Church

✠ Invitation to Worship (based on Isaiah 63)

One: I will tell of the Lord's unfailing love.

All: I will praise God for all that the Lord has done —

One: God's great goodness to his people,

All: and the Lord's many acts of faithful love.

One: For the Lord God is our Father,

All: our Redeemer from ages past.

✠ Hymn 462

I Love to Tell the Story

HANKEY

✠ A Scriptural Litany

(from Psalm 103)

One: Come, bless the Lord with me! Let us remember together the many good things that the Lord does for us.

All: For the Lord is like a father to his children, compassionate and merciful, filled with endless love.

One: He forgives all our sins and heals the sickness within us; he saves us from a life of destruction and surrounds us with love and mercy.

All: For the Lord is like a father to his children,
compassionate and merciful, filled with endless love.

One: He fills our lives with good things and renews our strength. He is righteous in all that he does and brings justice to those who have been wronged.

All: For the Lord is like a father to his children,
compassionate and merciful, filled with endless love.

One: He is not easily angered, nor does he remain angry forever. He doesn't treat us as our sins deserve, or punish us as harshly as he could.

All: For the Lord is like a father to his children,
compassionate and merciful, filled with endless love.

One: For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so strong is his love toward us. As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our sins from us.

All: For the Lord is like a father to his children,
compassionate and merciful, filled with endless love.

One: For he knows us, inside and out. He remembers how we were made — from the dust of the ground. Our lives on earth are short—like wildflowers in the field. But God's love is from everlasting to everlasting, from generation to generation, to those who remain in relationship with him, who listen to his voice, and do his will.

All: Bless the Lord!
With all that we have and all that we are,
we bless your holy name!

✠ Sung Response 582

Glory to God,

GLORY TO GOD

Whose Goodness Shines on Me

Glory to God, whose goodness shine on me,
and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,
and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

✠ Sharing God's Peace

Time with Young Disciples

Children of any age are invited to come forward.

Scripture Reading

Luke 11:11-13

¹¹ Is there anyone among you who, if your child asked for a fish, would give a snake instead of a fish? ¹² Or if the child asked for an egg, would give a scorpion? ¹³ If you, then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

✠ Offertory Prayer

✠ Hymn 625

How Great Thou Art

HOW GREAT THOU ART

✠ Benediction (based on Romans 8:15-16)

One: As you go from here, remember:

All: Because of the work of the Holy Spirit within us, we are sons and daughters, the children of God.

One: We have been adopted into God's family;
for God is truly our Father.

All: As God's children, we are God's heirs, and fellow heirs with Christ.

One: So go in peace and confidence,
knowing that the love of God, our Father,
the grace of Jesus Christ,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit goes with us.

ALL: AMEN.

This text is drawn from the second part of a fifty-stanza poem on the life of Christ written in 1866, during the author's recovery from a serious illness. The tune named for her first appeared three years later, and the composer was responsible for the creation of the refrain.

Refrain

I love to tell the sto - ry; 'twill be my theme in glo - ry to tell the old, old sto - ry of Je - sus and his love.

The composer of the tune (and creator of the refrain) asked the author of the stanzas to write a hymn based on the latter part of Deuteronomy 33:27 (as worded in the King James Version): "Underneath are the everlasting arms." Their joint effort has proved very popular.
