Prelude Children of the Heavenly Father arr. Robert A. Hobby

Welcome and Life of the Church

✠ Invitation to Worship

One: We have returned from the places we were sent, yet the journey of service never truly ends.

All: Wherever we go, we bring the stories of the people we met, and the lessons we have learned.

One: We bring the joy of connection, and the weight of the needs we witnessed.

All: We bring all of this to our community, and to God, whom we worship today. Therefore, let us worship the God of all places and peoples!

✠ Hymn 411

God Is Here Today

DIOS ESTÁ AQUÍ

✠ Time of Confession and Assurance of God's Grace

All: God of the risen Christ, you broke the power of sin and evil. Yet, we still live in a world of forgetfulness, anxiety, and fear. We have failed to love you as we should. We have neglected to love our neighbor. Indeed, we have even failed to love ourselves. Help us to see your image in the face of each person and that your creation is good. Help us to see both ourselves and everyone else as your children. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Colossians 3:9b-17

New Testament, pg.201

ONE: This the word of God for the people of God.

ALL: Thanks be to God

Anthem	Ordinary Miracles	Ballard/Stewart
Message	Made in the Image of Christ	David Ezekiel
☩ Hymn 452	Open the Eyes of My Heart	OPEN THE EYES

Morning Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Litany of Gratitude

Pastor David: Welcome home, beloved servants of God. We thank you for stepping out in faith to be Christ's hands and feet.

Congregation: We celebrate your safe return. We recognize the courage it took to serve, to listen, and to love in a new and different place.

Pastor David: Did you see God at work in the people you encountered and in each other?

Youth/Leaders: We did. God was present in every challenge and every blessing.

Congregation: We dedicate you to continued service here at home. We affirm our prayer and support as a congregation, and we welcome you back into our midst.

✠ Offertory Prayer

✠ Congregational Prayer

Gracious God, we praise you for your protecting hand over our youth and leaders while they traveled. We lift up the communities they served and the relationships they built. Lord, the transition back to our everyday routines can be difficult and overwhelming. We pray for a smooth re-entry. Give them the courage to carry the lessons they learned into Barrington and wherever they go. Remind them – and us – that their mission is not over, but continues right here at home. In your name, we pray. Amen.

✠ Hymn 37

Let All Things Now Living

ASH GROVE

✠ Benediction

One: Our youth have served faithfully away from home. And we are proud of you. Now, you are commissioned to serve right where you are planted.

All: We send you out to be light in our schools, our neighborhoods, and our daily lives. And following the example of our youth, so will we.

One: Keep your eyes open as you walk in God's world, alert for occasions to share God's love.

And may the God who made us,
the Christ who mends us,
and the Spirit who gives each of us life,
walk with you each and every day. Amen

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God!

SERMON SERIES

Next Sunday, Pastor David begins a series of messages on the lives of the disciples – people just like you and me. Next Sunday, the focus is on Andrew – the First to Follow. Robert Reilly will lead a more detailed discussion in the Parlor following worship.

^{9b} seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices ¹⁰and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. ¹¹In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, enslaved and free, but Christ is all and in all!

¹²Therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. ¹³Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. ¹⁴Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. ¹⁵And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. ¹⁷And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

God Is Here Today

Though it is popular throughout Latin America, the conditions of this song's creation have remained obscure. It was once thought to have originated in a Mexican jail but is now known to have been written by an Argentinian who has also lived in the United States and Colombia.

452 Open the Eyes of My Heart

D A/C#

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly.

Bm G Em/D D

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, I want to see you.

The initial petition of this song is based on the language of Ephesians 1:18, while the second part draws on the account of Isaiah's vision in Isaiah 6:1-5. That event, in turn, is the basis of the threefold Sanctus that has become a traditional element in Christian worship.

Written for an easy-to-sing folk melody familiar in England as well as Wales, this 20th-century North American text bears many resemblances to both Psalm 148 and the traditional canticle Benedicite, omnia opera Domini (Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord).
