Welcome and Life of the Church

✠ Invitation to Worship

One: We gather in God's holy presence, where God embraces us with grace.

All: Here God will transform us into disciples.

One: We glorify God, who yearns for justice for the last and the least.

All: Here God will write compassion on our hearts.

One: We give thanks to God for God's persistent love that seeks us out.

All: Here God will breathe the Word of Life into our lives, and so we will praise our God!

✠ Hymn 12

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

ST. DENIO

✠ Time of Confession and Assurance of God's Grace

All: God of all life and each life, you know all about us, our deepest concerns and our fondest hopes. We confess we are often anxious to see results. We lose patience when we cannot see progress. We blame others rather than seek solutions. Forgive us. Help us claim your peace when our hearts are anxious.

Morning Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

The opening line of this hymn was inspired by the three divine attributes listed in 1 Timothy 1:17 (King James Version), and it continues by considering how God's life exceeds our own finite existence. The text is well set to a Welsh melody shaped by many three-note units.

This hymn is a testimony of experience. The original seven-stanza German text (based on Psalm 55:22) and its tune were created by the author/composer at the age of twenty in thanksgiving for finding employment many weeks after being left almost penniless following a robbery.
