Prelude O God beyond All Praising arr. Robert Buckley Farlee

Welcome and Life of the Church

✞Invitation to Worship

One: Sing to the Lord a new song; let the whole earth praise His name.
All: We will tell of His salvation from day to day and declare His glory among the nations.
One: God has reconciled us to Himself and given us the message of His grace.
All: Open our hearts and mouths, O Lord, to share Your good news with a world in need. Let us worship and proclaim Him together.

✞Hymn 268 Crown Him with Many Crowns DIADEMATA

✞Time of Confession and Assurance of God's Grace

All: Lord, we confess that there are times we harbor iniquity in our hearts — clinging to, rationalizing, or protecting sins that block our fellowship with you and one another. We admit we have ignored your voice or cherished ways that are contrary to your holiness. Forgive us for hiding what should be brought into the light. Cleanse our hearts, strip away our stubborn defenses, and renew a right spirit within us. Then we will go forth and tell what you have done for us to a world that desperately needs to hear your good news.

MESSY CHURCH TODAY

Tonight we are coming together in Messy Church with all ages to remember how God is always faithful and forms a community of faith. Praying the Psalms, which was the song book that Jesus used to pray to God during his ministry on earth, helps us to pray as Jesus did. Our time together begins at 4PM and dinner will be served.

The second will invite each of us to consider a 2027 pledge and include a pledge card and other information.

If you wish to pre-pay part or all of your 2027 pledge or gift before the end of December (for tax, RMD, QCD, or any other reason), please feel free to do so and note it is for 2027. Scripture Reading Psalm 66:1-20

[1] Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;
[2] sing the glory of his name;
give to him glorious praise.
[3] Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds!
Because of your great power, your enemies cringe before you.
[4] All the earth worships you;
they sing praises to you,
sing praises to your name."

[5] Come and see what God has done:
he is awesome in his deeds among mortals.
[6] He turned the sea into dry land;
they passed through the river on foot.
There we rejoiced in him,
[7] who rules by his might forever,
whose eyes keep watch on the nations—
let the rebellious not exalt themselves.

[8] Bless our God, O peoples;
let the sound of his praise be heard,
[9] who has kept us among the living
and has not let our feet slip.
[10] For you, O God, have tested us;
you have tried us as silver is tried.
[11] You brought us into the net;
you laid burdens on our backs;
[12] you let people ride over our heads;
we went through fire and through water;
yet you have brought us out to a spacious place.

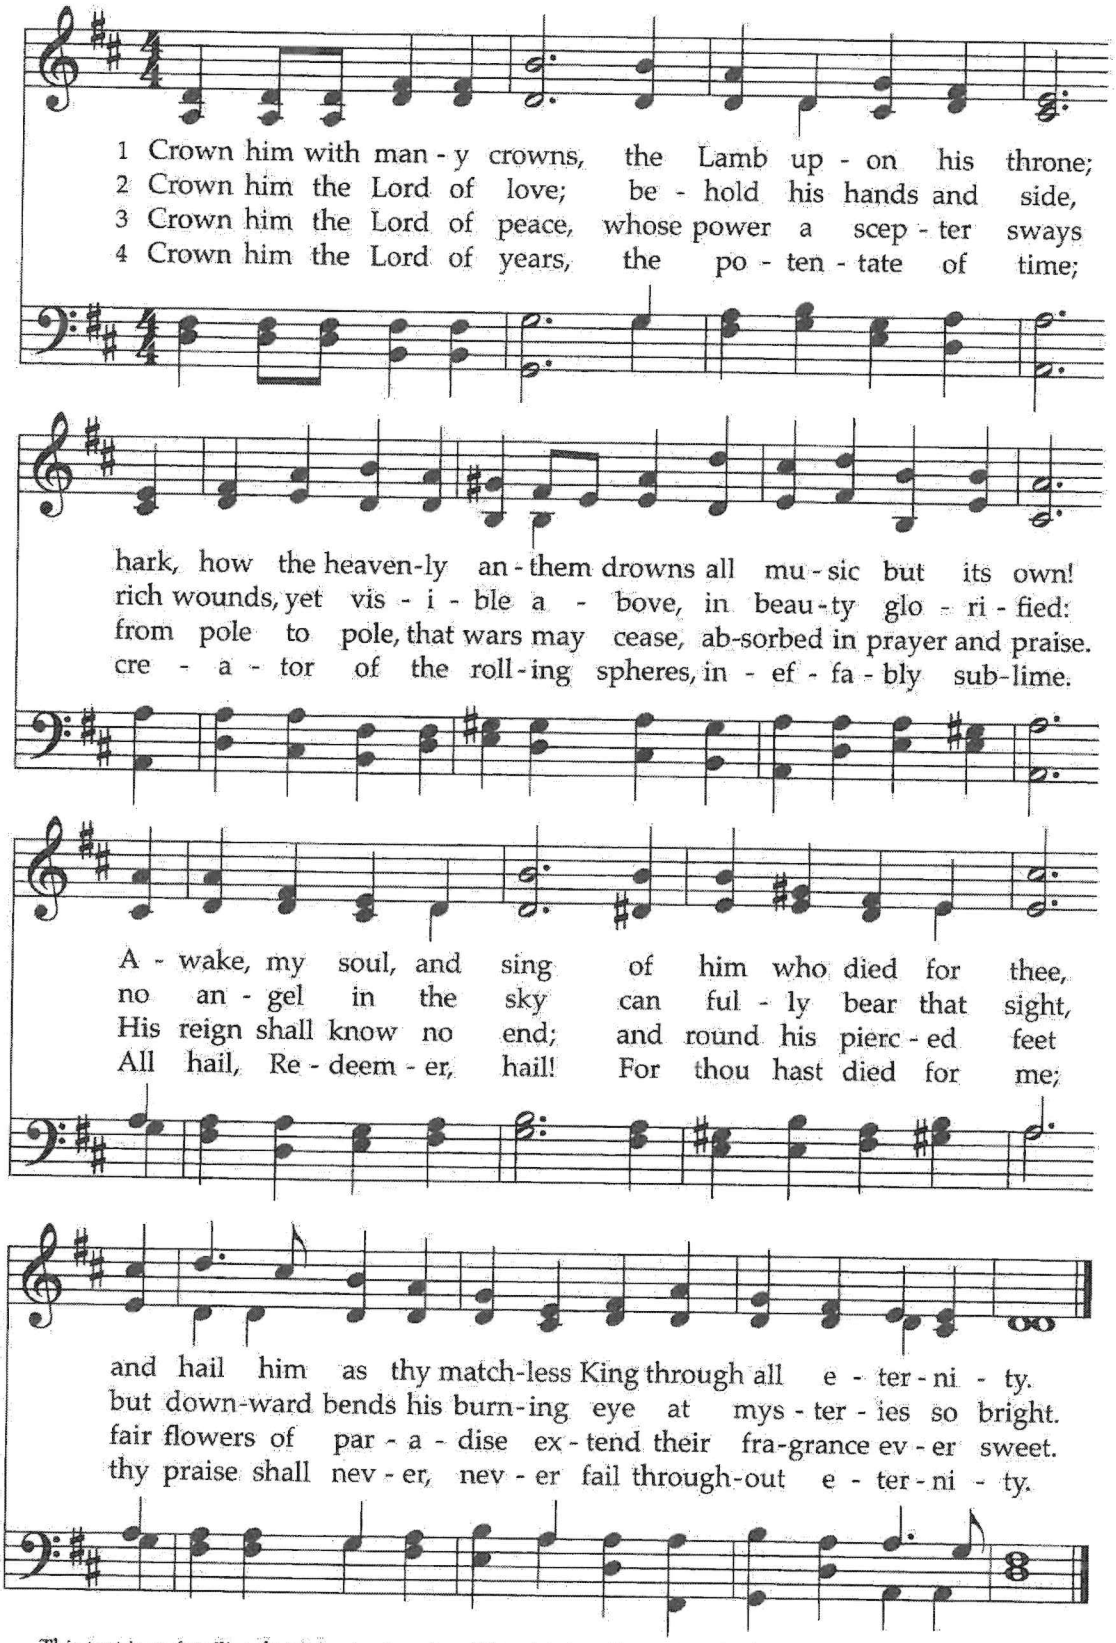

[13] I will come into your house with burnt offerings;
I will pay you my vows,
[14] those that my lips uttered

and my mouth promised when I was in trouble.
15 I will offer to you burnt offerings of fatted calves,
with the smoke of the sacrifice of rams;
I will make an offering of bulls and goats.

16 Come and hear, all you who fear God,
and I will tell what he has done for me.
17 I cried aloud to him,
and he was extolled with my tongue.
18 If I had cherished iniquity in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened.
19 But truly God has listened;
he has heard the words of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God,
who has not rejected my prayer
or removed his steadfast love from me.

Crown Him with Many Crowns 268

This text is so familiar that it is easy to miss all its paradox, mystery, suffering, and beauty; it rewards careful reading and meditation outside corporate worship. The tune's composer, chapel organist at Windsor Castle, had much experience in creating a royal sound.

MUSIC: George Job Elvey, 1868

462 I Love to Tell the Story

This text is drawn from the second part of a fifty-stanza poem on the life of Christ written in 1866, during the author's recovery from a serious illness. The tune named for her first appeared three years later, and the composer was responsible for the creation of the refrain.

TEXT: Katherine Hankey, 1866; ref. William G. Fischer, 1869
MUSIC: William G. Fischer, 1869

Refrain

to tell the old, old sto - ry of Je - sus and his love.

Rejoice, the Lord Is King! 363

Descant

Each stanza of this enthronement text prepares for the final line of the refrain, based on Philippians 4:4. "Lord" is here a title of Christ rather than a reference to the undivided Trinity. The late 18th-century tune (first used with Psalm 148) captures the mood well.
